Albertans vote in an election to choose their leaders (Skills, Knowledge). Every community shares special heritage, like flags and stories (Knowledge). Play this game to practice these words about Alberta.

How to play

Look at the blank lines. Each line stands for one letter.

Pick a letter you think is in the word.

Say the letter or write it down.

If the letter is in the word, put it on the right blank line.

If the letter is not in the word, draw one part of the hangman.

Try to guess the word before the drawing is finished.

Work with a partner and take turns.
